

Research Ethics Workshop on Human Participants

Dr Emma E. Buchtel

Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology
The Education University of Hong Kong

23 October, 2019 (Wednesday), 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Venue: RM A505, Caritas Institute of Higher Education

Abstract

This workshop will help staff understand both theoretical and practical issues related to the ethics of conducting academic research with human participants. It is relevant to staff who will be applying for ethics approval for the first time, or supervising students in conducting their research projects. Ethical issues to address when conducting research and applying for ethics approval, together with a set of specific tips to pursue their research and scholarly activities with a high ethical standard will be provided.

Biography

Dr. Emma E. Buchtel joined the Department of Psychology at The Education University of Hong Kong in 2010, and has been a member of the Human Research Ethics Committee since 2011. Dr. Buchtel received her PhD in Psychology from the University of British Columbia in 2009, and her B.A. from Yale University in 1999. In between, she spent four years in Changsha and Beijing, teaching English at the high school and university levels and learning Chinese.

Chairperson: Professor Lisa Low, School of Health Sciences

A sandwich/salad will be provided.

Target audience: CIHE academic and research staff

For enquiries, please email to ro@cihe.edu.hk

SCAN QR CODE TO REGISTER

